

Important information for the year-end retreat

At Drukpa Plouray Centre in the presence of

His Eminence Khyabje Drukpa Thuksey Rinpoche

Catering

Registration for breakfasts will close at midnight on December 14th. After this date, we will no longer be able to accept registrations for breakfasts and they cannot be refunded in case of absence. Breakfasts will be provided by the Centre and can therefore be subject to concession rates. You can reserve them by clicking here. This link will also allow you to book your camping accommodation and register for temple sessions.

Lunch and dinner will be provided by Nyendrak, an independent Tibetan restaurant owner. They must be paid for directly to him on-site and therefore cannot be subject to the usual concession rates. To allow Nyendrak to plan meal preparation, we request you to book them before December 14th by clicking here.

The cafeteria will not serve any meals or snacks, only hot and cold beverages.

A filtered water service will be available for you to fill your water bottle near the cafeteria. Consequently, no bottled water will be sold. Please bring your own container.

To avoid the use of paper napkins, we request those who will have their meals at the Centre to bring their own cloth napkin.

Waste sorting and reduction

A waste sorting and reduction service will be implemented during the retreat; please strictly follow the sorting instructions that will be provided.

Registration confirmation

To collect the wristband that will allow you to enter the temple and your breakfast tickets, we request you to go to the office at the temple entrance upon your arrival. The office will be open as of December 27th in the mid-afternoon.

Health protocol

Every person registered for the retreat must be responsible in case of infection and must have a mask and a covid self-test kit sold at pharmacies to test themselves if symptoms appear. A person with a positive test must inform Detchen, the person responsible in the medical field at the Buddhist Centre, under medical confidentiality. Mask-wearing may be made mandatory during the retreat by the Buddhist Centre managers.

I am a person with reduced mobility

People with reduced mobility are invited to identify themselves and state their needs in this area by clicking here as early as possible before the retreat.

Carpooling search and offer

For people wishing to carpool to come to or leave the Centre, we suggest you connect with each other:

- Via the Drukpa Plouray carpooling website by clicking here
- Via a board that will be located in the temple entrance for return trips

I am a first aider or health professional

You are a first aider or health professional and you agree to be called upon if needed during the retreat to assist a person requiring it, please let us know by clicking here.

I wish to come with my pet

We ask pet owners to be fully responsible for picking up their animal's waste in the park. We also request them not to bring them into the temple.
